BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF STULL, STULL & BRODY

For more than 40 years, Stull, Stull & Brody has developed a national reputation for zealously representing plaintiffs in securities class action litigation and other complex litigations, including ERISA actions and consumer class actions. Since 1970, the firm has litigated hundreds of securities class action cases, obtaining over a billion dollars in settlements for aggrieved investors and shareholders.

Stull, Stull & Brody's skills and expertise are best demonstrated by its results. Stull, Stull & Brody has been lead or co-lead counsel in the following securities cases that have recovered at least $100 million for aggrieved investors:

- ◆ In re Initial Public Offerings Securities Litig., 21 MC 92 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (Stull, Stull & Brody served as one of six members of Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, which recovered $586 million)
- ◆ In re BankAmerica Corp. Securities Litig., MDL No. 1264 (E.D. Mo. 2002) (recovery of $490 million, the third highest settlement ever in a case where there was no institutional lead plaintiff)
- ◆ In re Geodyne Resources, Inc. Securities Litig. (Harris County Tex.) (recovery of $125 million cash settlement plus contingent benefits of additional $75 million)
- ◆ In re Computer Associates Sec. Litig., Master File No. 98-CV-4839 (TCP) (E.D.N.Y. 2003) (recovery of 5.7 million shares (estimated at $133.551 million))
- ◆ Spahn v. Edward D. Jones & Co., L.P., 04-CV-00086 (E.D. Mo. 2007) (recovery of $72.5 million in credits for current Edward Jones customers and $55 million in cash for former Edward Jones customers. In addition, defendants paid all reasonable costs and expenses of class notice and settlement administration)
- ◆ In re Peregrine Systems, Inc. Sec. Litig., Civil Action No. 02-CV-870 J (RBB) (S.D. Ca. 2006, S.D. Ca. 2009) (recovery of $117,567,922)
- ◆ In re American Express Financial Advisors Sec. Litig., 04-CV-1773 (S.D.N.Y.) (recovery of $100 million in cash and implementation of significant remedial measures. In addition, defendants paid all reasonable costs of class notice and settlement administration, which is currently estimated to be $15 to 18 million)

- ◆ In re Ikon Office Solutions, Inc. Securities Litig., MDL No. 1318 (E.D. Pa. May 9, 2000) (recovery of $111 million)
- ◆ In re Salomon Brothers Treasury Litig., Consolidated Action No. 91 Civ. 5471 (RPP) (S.D.N.Y. 1994) (recovery of $100 million)

Based upon these results, the “Top 100 Settlements Semi-Annual Report” for the second half of 2013, which “identifies the largest securities class action settlements filed after the passage of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, ranked by the total value of the settlement fund[.]”<sup>1</sup> shows that Stull, Stull & Brody co-ranked as tenth in highest frequency of appointment as lead or co-lead counsel in the top 100 settlements.

Similarly, in the field of ERISA litigation, Stull, Stull & Brody has been court-appointed as lead counsel (six times) or liaison counsel (twice) for plaintiffs in eight of the approximately twenty largest recoveries in such ERISA cases,<sup>2</sup> including:

- In re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litig., Civil Action No. 02 CV 8853 (SWK) (S.D.N.Y. 2006) (recovery of $100 million in cash to the company’s 401(k) plan in what the court noted was “one of the largest ERISA settlements to date”)
- In re Global Crossing Ltd. ERISA Litig., Master File No. 02-cv-7453 (GEL) (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (Stull, Stull & Brody served as liaison counsel for the class in a case which recovered a payment of $79 million to the company’s 401(k) plan)

Stull, Stull & Brody has offices in New York City and Beverly Hills, enabling the firm to efficiently handle class actions on a nationwide basis. Due to the consistency and seniority of its attorneys, including six attorneys who have been with the firm for more than twenty years and an additional five attorneys who have been with the firm for more than nine years, Stull, Stull & Brody is able to leverage vast experience efficiently and effectively. Stull, Stull & Brody has achieved favorable results on behalf of investors in many cases. Stull, Stull & Brody's lawyers possess outstanding credentials and the firm has received numerous acknowledgements for its achievements.

The firm's efforts have been recognized by a late member of the United States Congress, the Representative Paul E. Gillmor, Rep. Ohio 5th District. As The Honorable Congressman Gillmor wrote to United States District Judge Stanley E. Chesler in connection with the In re Merck & Co., Inc. Securities, Shareholder Derivative and ERISA Litig., Case No 3:05-CV-01151 (MDL 1658):

I was one of the court appointed lead plaintiffs in In re Safety-Kleen Rollins Shareholders Litigation, Civil Action No. 3:00-CV1343-17, which was pending before Judge Joseph Anderson in the District of South Carolina. In that case, which alleged, among other things, violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I and the other court appointed lead plaintiffs selected Stull, Stull & Brody to be one of the lead counsel for the plaintiffs. That case resulted in a settlement recovery for the class of a very substantial portion of the money that could have been recovered if the case had gone to trial net of attorneys fees, expenses and administration fees.

During the course of that litigation, which lasted for about five years, Stull, Stull & Brody kept me apprised of all significant developments in the action such as class certification, settlement negotiations, litigation strategy, pending motions, court rulings and trial preparation. I would regularly speak to counsel by telephone at which time the foregoing topics would typically be discussed and I would have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input.

(Letter of January 2, 2007, Rep. Paul E. Gillmor, annexed hereto)

Stull, Stull & Brody has been recognized by numerous Courts for the high quality of its legal representation and excellence in the field of securities litigation, as noted in the following comments made by judges in cases in which Stull, Stull & Brody occupied a leading role:

The firms involved, I think we heard from several of them today, the papers that have been submitted, it is clear of the dedication, devotion, professionalism, and in the court's view efficiency of these firms, so there is no question in the court's mind of the quality of the representation. In re American Express Fin'l Advisors Sec. Litig., 04 Civ. 1773 (DAB) (S.D.N.Y. July 13, 2007).

* * *

[T]his is one of the largest, if not the largest, securities fraud settlements in this district. The settlement size is particularly noteworthy as class counsel did not have the benefit of an SEC or other regulatory agency investigation and so prosecuted the case without assistance. . . . The management of the case was also of extremely high quality. . . . [C]lass counsel is of high caliber and has extensive experience in similar class action litigation. Each of the co-lead counsel firms has a national reputation for advocacy in securities class actions, and there is no doubt that this standing enhanced their ability to prosecute the case effectively and to negotiate credibly. . . . The submissions were of consistently high quality, and class counsel has been notably diligent in preparing filings in a timely manner even when under tight deadlines. In re Ikon Office Solutions, Inc Securities Litigation, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 6510 (E.D. Pa. May 9, 2000).

* * *

I am satisfied that counsel in this case are highly competent, very skilled in this very specialized area and were at all times during the course of the litigation . . . well prepared, well spoken, [ ]knew their stuff and [ ]were a credit to their profession. They are the top of the line. In Re Electro-Catheter Corporation Securities Litigation, Civ. No. 87-41 (D.N.J. September 7, 1989).

* * *

The court takes note of the competence of both plaintiffs' counsel and defendants' counsel and their extensive experience in litigating securities class actions. The competence of plaintiffs' counsel resulted in this case being vigorously and efficiently prosecuted against very able opponents over a twenty month period and was a factor in bringing about settlement. Schaffer v. Timberland Co., 94-634-JD (D.N.H. 1997).

* * *

This case is a "model for how commercial litigation should be conducted and can be resolved." Bash v. Diagnostek, CV 94-794 M (D.N.M.).

* * *

Indeed, I indicate to . . . counsel for plaintiff that they have done an admirable job in this case in bringing it to finality and in bringing back to the shareholders of this corporation some moneys as a result of certain things which occurred during the course of the operation of this corporation which perhaps should not have occurred. Finkel v. O'Brien, Civ. No. 85-2539 (D.N.J. March 27, 1990).

All the firms involved in this litigation are highly experienced and well respected, particularly in the field of securities law litigation. The Stull . . . firm [is one] of this area's, if not the nation's most active and successful law firms specializing in securities litigation. Stull v. Baker, 410 F. Supp. 1326, 1332 (S.D.N.Y. 1976).

Stull, Stull & Brody's expertise in the field of securities litigation has also been recognized by the following courts: In re Frontier Group Insurance, Inc. Securities Litigation, 172 F.R.D. 31 (E.D.N.Y. 1997); In re Allegheny International Inc. Shareholder Litigation, 86-835 (W.D. Pa.) (Order, December 10, 1987, Diamond J.); Zucker v. United States Steel, C-1-79-588 (S.D. Ohio) (Order, October 14, 1981, Rubin, C.J.); Friedman v. Colgate Palmolive, 80 Civ. 2340 (CPS) (E.D. N.Y.) (Order, June 16, 1981, Sifton, J.); Zuckerman v. Sparton, G79-457-C.A. (W.D. Mich.) (Opinion and Order, April 14, 1981, Fox, J.); Mottoros v. Abrams, 524 F. Supp. 254 (N.D. Ill. 1981); Koenig v. Smith, 79 C 452 (ERN) (E.D.N.Y.) (Opinion No. 49289, November 5, 1979, Sand, J.); In Re Commonwealth Oil-Tesoro Petroleum Securities Litigation, MDL No. 347 (Order, July 24, 1979, Higginbotham, J.); Wietschner v. Blakely, 73 F.R.D. 318 (S.D.N.Y. 1976).

SEMINAL CASES

Throughout its 40 year history, Stull, Stull & Brody has been involved with a number of seminal cases that have significantly affected the landscape of securities litigation.

- ◆ In Merck & Co., Inc. v. Reynolds, 559 U.S. 633 (2010), in a case brought on behalf of investors in Merck securities alleging that they were defrauded due to misrepresentations made by Merck, the United States Supreme Court issued a ruling making it easier for defrauded investors to file actions claiming violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by holding that the statute of limitations does not begin to run on investors not only until the time an investor should have known that a false statement was made but also until the time that the investor should have known that the statement was either knowingly or recklessly made.
- ◆ In Rand v. Monsanto Company, 926 F.2d 596 (7th Cir. 1991), the firm appeared for the plaintiff in a landmark decision establishing the principle that a representative plaintiff need not be willing to bear all costs of an action to satisfy the adequacy of representation requirement.
- ◆ In In re Lucent Technologies, Inc. ERISA Litig., Civil Action No. 01-cv-3491 (JAP) (D.N.J. 2005), the firm was largely responsible for a frequently-cited ruling by the District Court dated February 11, 2002, in which the Court denied a motion to stay the ERISA litigation against until a related securities class action was resolved. Stull, Stull & Brody's briefing in opposition to motion to the stay action highlighted the significant differences between ERISA and securities class actions, even when the actions involve the same factual issues. The District Court ultimately ruled that "resolution of the securities class action . . . will not necessarily resolve all issues in this matter" and "[t]he legal issues here will still have to be determined, and a stay or continuance shall not change that fact."
- ◆ In Small v. Fritz Companies Inc., 30 Cal. 4th 167 (2003), the firm successfully argued before the California Supreme Court that a non-trading shareholder has the right to sue a corporation for damages where the shareholder relies on false financial statements issued by the corporation. The decision represented a significant change in legal doctrine and was widely heralded as a potent new weapon for investors.
- ◆ In Howard v. Everex, 228 F.3d 1057 (9th Cir. 2000), Stull, Stull & Brody successfully advocated that a corporate officer can be liable in a private antifraud action for signing a document filed with the SEC that he knows (or is reckless in not knowing) contained misrepresentations, even if the officer was not involved in preparing the document. The 9th Circuit decision was a precursor to Section 302(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 which now requires corporate officers that sign documents filed with the SEC to certify the accuracy of information therein.

- ◆ In Lewis v. Black, 74 F.R.D. 1 (E.D.N.Y. 1975), the firm established that neither the personality nor the motive of a proposed class representative was determinative of whether he would provide vigorous advocacy for the class, thereby preventing defendant corporations from compelling representatives to respond to questions regarding motives and actions in past cases.
- ◆ In In re Cabletron Systems, Inc. Securities Litig., 311 F.3d 11 (1st Cir. 2002), the firm was instrumental in obtaining a reversal of an order dismissing a complaint under the pleading requirements of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. This case established in the First Circuit that plaintiffs are not required to provide the names of informants in a complaint.
- ◆ In In re Frontier Group Insurance Litig., Master File No. 94 Civ. 5213 (E.D.N.Y. 2002), the firm was instrumental in defeating a Daubert challenge, thereby enabling the expert to testify as to aggregate damages based on the use of a trading model.
- ◆ In Harman v. Lyphomed, Inc., 122 F.R.D. 522 (N.D. Ill. 1988), the firm established the applicability of the fraud-on-the-market theory of reliance for stocks trading on the NASDAQ.
- ◆ The firm was instrumental in establishing new law on fraud-on-the-market theory in the 5th Circuit decision of Finkel v. Docutel/Olivetti Corporation, 817 F.2d 356 (5th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 485 U.S. 959 (1988), and, in the Northern District of Illinois decision of Mottoros v. Abrams, 524 F. Supp. 254 (N.D. Ill. 1981).
- ◆ In In re Wilmington Trust Corp. ERISA Litig., 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 125891 (D. Del. Sept. 4, 2013), among the first reported decisions of its kind, the court granted plaintiffs' motion to proceed without class certification, allowing plaintiffs to represent all plan participants because of the derivative nature of ERISA's fiduciary duties.

- Griffin v. Flagstar Bancorp, Inc., 2:10-cv-10610-PDB-MKM (E.D. Mich) (settlement of $3 million, representing 85% of likely recoverable damages, recognized as "excellent" by the Court)

Stull, Stull & Brody's advocacy in these and other ERISA class actions, which have been brought on behalf of 401(k) retirement plan participants and beneficiaries, has also yielded new law in the ERISA field. In the Lucent ERISA litigation the firm was largely responsible for a frequently-cited ruling by the District Court dated February 11, 2002, in which the Court denied a motion to stay the ERISA litigation against Lucent until resolution of a related securities class action against the company. Stull, Stull & Brody's briefing on the stay motion pointed out the many significant differences between ERISA and securities class actions, even where the ERISA and securities cases involved the same factual issues. The District Court ultimately ruled that "resolution of the securities class action . . . will not necessarily resolve all issues in this matter" and "[t]he legal issues here will still have to be determined, and a stay or continuance shall not change that fact."

Various courts have noted Stull, Stull & Brody's abilities in the field of ERISA Class Actions. E.g., In re Cardinal Health, Inc. ERISA Litig., 225 F.R.D. 552, 556 (S.D. Ohio 2005) ("the Court finds that [co-lead counsel and] Stull, Stull & Brody have a high level of ERISA expertise and are willing to commit each firm's resources to this case such that they fairly and adequately represent all parties on their side"); In re Sprint Corp. ERISA Litig., 443 F. Supp. 2d 1249, 1270 (D. Kan. 2006) ("The high quality of plaintiffs' counsel's work culminated in the successful resolution of this complex case. This was demonstrated by their successful and commendable prosecution of this case through the motion to dismiss stage and the ultimate settlement of this case under favorable terms."); id. at 1260 ("counsel litigated this case during its early phases aggressively and in a manner that demonstrated legal expertise in this area of the law"); In re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litig., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 70474 (S.D.N.Y. 2006) ("Class counsel are qualified attorneys with considerable ERISA experience. Their prosecution of this lawsuit has secured the substantial Settlement now under consideration. Throughout this litigation, they have shown themselves to be capable and qualified to represent the Class.”); Hill v. Tribune Co., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23931 (N.D. Ill. 2005) (finding “that the Stull Group has more experience and possibly greater resources” than the other applicant for lead counsel). Also, recently, in Griffin v. Flagstar Bancorp, Inc., 2:10-cv-10610, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 173702 (E.D. Mich. Dec. 12, 2013), the Court recognized that “[t]he $3 million settlement appears to be an excellent result” and that “[t]he complexity of this ERISA litigation cannot be questioned, nor can the skill and expertise of counsel who are known nationally for their successful representation of ERISA clients in class action matters.”

Re: In re Merck & Co. Inc., Securities, Shareholder Derivative and ERISA Litig.
(MDL 1658); Case No. 3:05-cv-01151 SRC-MF

Dear Judge Chesler:

I was one of the court appointed lead plaintiffs in In re Safety-Kleen Rollins Shareholders Litigation, Civil Action No. 3:00-CV1343-17, which was pending before Judge Joseph Anderson in the District of South Carolina. In that case, which alleged, among other things, violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I and the other court appointed lead plaintiffs selected Stull, Stull & Brody to be one of the lead counsel for the plaintiffs. That case resulted in a settlement recovery for the class of a very substantial portion of the money that could have been recovered if the case had gone to trial, net of attorneys fees, expenses and administrative fees.

During the course of that litigation, which lasted for about five years, Stull, Stull & Brody kept me apprised of all significant developments in the action such as class certification, settlement negotiations, litigation strategy, pending motions, court rulings and trial preparation. I would regularly speak to counsel by telephone at which time the foregoing topics would typically be discussed and I would have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul E. Gillmor
