FIRM RÉSUMÉ

I. Introduction

Stull, Stull & Brody's litigation expertise and results have been recognized for over forty years. Stull, Stull & Brody has offices in New York City and Beverly Hills, enabling the firm to efficiently handle class actions on a nationwide basis. Due to the consistency and seniority of its attorneys, including six attorneys who have been with the firm for more than twenty years and an additional five attorneys who have been with the firm for more than ten years, Stull, Stull & Brody is able to leverage the vast experience of its attorneys to efficiently and effectively prosecute cases on behalf of its clients. Stull, Stull & Brody has achieved favorable results on behalf of investors in many cases. Because of its many successes, Stull, Stull & Brody has developed a national reputation representing plaintiffs in complex class action litigation and derivative actions. Stull, Stull & Brody's lawyers possess outstanding credentials and the firm has received numerous acknowledgements for its substantial achievements.

Recently the firm has concentrated in large part on protecting the rights of retirement plan participants under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"). Stull, Stull & Brody has been a pioneer in the field of ERISA litigation since the filing of In re Lucent Technologies, Inc. ERISA Litig., one of the first cases of its kind, described in more detail below, in which the Lucent Court recognized the firm for "breaking "new ground" in the field of ERISA litigation Stull, Stull & Brody has been at the forefront of ERISA company stock fund litigation since their inception. The firm has briefed and continues to brief cutting-edge legal arguments and analyses to maximize its recoveries on behalf of 401(k) plans and participants in those plans. As recently recognized by Judge Robinson of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, "SS&B's ERISA litigation experience, particularly litigation appearing similar to the issue at bar, indicates extensive experience and knowledge of applicable law.... SS&B's experience includes many high-yield cases . . . Furthermore ... SS&B, has served as co-lead counsel in five of the largest recoveries in ERISA class action suits involving imprudent investment of retirement plan savings in company stock." In Re: Wilmington Trust Corp. ERISA Litig., 1:11-cv-00101-SD (D. Del. Mar. 15, 2012).

The firm has represented claimants in numerous class actions alleging ERISA violations. In those ERISA actions, Stull, Stull & Brody has recovered hundreds of millions of dollars on behalf of 401(k) plan participants. Stull, Stull & Brody has extensively briefed all aspects of ERISA litigation, including summary judgment briefings on liability and damages. The In re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litigation Court noted that Stull, Stull & Brody and co-lead counsel's recovery in that case was "one of the largest ERISA settlements to date" and it remains the second largest recovery in an ERISA stock fund litigation to date.

Stull, Stull & Brody's skills and efforts are best demonstrated by its results. In the field of ERISA litigation, Stull, Stull & Brody has been court-appointed as lead counsel (six times) or liaison counsel (twice) for plaintiffs in eight of the approximately twenty largest recoveries in such ERISA cases,¹ including:

- ◆ In re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litig., Civil Action No. 02 CV 8853 (SWK) (S.D.N.Y.) (recovery of $100 million in cash to the company's 401(k) plan in what the court noted was "one of the largest ERISA settlements to date")

II. Courts Routinely Recognize the Excellence of Stull, Stull & Brody in ERISA Litigations

Stull, Stull & Brody has been recognized by numerous Courts for the high quality of its legal representation and for its excellence in the field of ERISA litigation as evidenced by the following comments of judges in cases where Stull, Stull & Brody has taken a leading role. For example:

Counsel take justifiable pride in their accomplishments. The quality of their filings was impressive. Counsel defeated well developed motions to dismiss, filed by skilled and renowned defense lawyers. Even more importantly, they used the mediation process to persuade reluctant and determined defendants to part with settlement dollars well above those expected.

The service was praiseworthy in all respects. . . .

In re AOL Time Warner, Inc. Securities and ERISA Litig., No. 02-1500 (S.D.N.Y.), Report & Recommendation of Special Master dated August 7, 2007 at 30, approved by the Court by Memorandum Opinion dated October 26, 2007; id. at 37 (noting that Stull, Stull & Brody and co-counsel's obtaining an additional $30 million recovery for the class in addition to the independent fiduciary's expected settlement value of $70 million "stands out as some of the hardest work and most outstanding results" and finding that "counsel exceeded the expectations of the independent fiduciary and stretched the defendants' settlement tolerances beyond their limits."); id. at 42-43 (recognizing counsel's "commendable work and their fidelity to the class in the face of risks."); id. at 32 ("[T]he extra mile traveled by counsel to obtain a $100 million settlement for the class, an amount substantially above what experts considered fair and what seemed achievable.") (emphasis added).

As recognized by the court in In re Lucent Technologies, Inc. ERISA Litig.:

[Stull, Stull & Brody and co-counsel] vigorously and aggressively pursued every possible source of value, even achieving meaningful therapeutic relief. The Settlement is reasonable in light of the best possible recovery and represents [] a very substantial portion of the likely recovery in this case. . . .

. . . As noted above, Plaintiffs were embarking on "new ground" in pursuing this litigation[.] Plaintiffs could rely on only a single favorable case, Ikou, at the time. With little case law and challenging substantive proofs ahead, the outcome of the lawsuit was, at best, questionable.

Case No. 01-cv-3491 (D.N.J.) (Opinion and Order, March 15, 2004, at p. 21) (Pisano, J.) (emphasis in original); see also Reinhart v. Lucent Techs., Inc. (In re Lucent Techs., Inc. Sec. Litig.), 327 F. Supp. 2d 426, 446 (D.N.J. 2004):

This case involved alleged breaches of fiduciary duties relevant to Lucent stock funds held by 401k plan participants. This type of ERISA claims is novel - so much so, that Lucent and its insurers initially contended that the ERISA Class could not recover even if the Class proved the alleged fraud. The ERISA Class, however, maintained its claims and sought monetary damages to recoup their losses and therapeutic changes to the structure of the Plans, particularly the LTSSP. . . .

As recognized by the court in In re Cardinal Health, Inc. ERISA Litig.:

Each firm has an impressive resume and is qualified to be lead counsel, but the Court finds the McKeehan Plaintiffs' proposed counsel, Schatz & Nobel and Stull, Stull & Brody, will best be able to represent fairly and adequately the class because of their extensive experience in ERISA litigation. In re Terazosin Hydrochloride, 220 F.R.D. 672, 702 (S.D. Fla. 2004) (finding the proposed counsel's "experience in, and knowledge of, the applicable law in this field" the "most persuasive" factor when choosing lead counsel).

225 F.R.D. 552, 556 (S.D. Ohio 2005); id. ("[Co-counsel and] Stull, Stull & Brody have also demonstrated a commitment to identifying and investigating potential claims in the action").

[A] high level of skill in this area of the law was necessary to perform the legal services in this case properly[.] Plaintiffs' counsel possessed the requisite level of experience, reputation and ability in the field of ERISA class actions and other complex litigation[.] the high quality of plaintiffs' counsel's work culminated in the successful resolution of this complex case. This was demonstrated by their successful and commendable prosecution of this case through the motion to dismiss stage and the ultimate settlement of this case under favorable terms.");

In re Sprint Corp. ERISA Litig., No. 03-2202 (D. Kan.) (Aug. 3, 2006) at 335; id. at 33 ("the results obtained by virtue of the settlement are extraordinary compared to the anticipated difficulties of establishing significant amounts of damages even if plaintiffs could have overcome the numerous obstacles for establishing liability"); see also In re Tyco International, Ltd. Securities Litig., Case No. 02-1335 (D.N.H. Dec. 20, 2002) at 2 (finding that Stull, Stull & Brody and its co-counsel "have the necessary resources, skill and commitment to effectively represent the proposed class" and "extensive experience in both leading class actions and prosecuting ERISA claims." and that Stull, Stull & Brody and its co-counsel "have demonstrated their consistent commitment to this case by filing several well-argued briefs with the Court on a range of issues"); Hill v. Tribune Co., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23931 (N.D. Ill. 2005) (finding "that the Stull Group has more experience and possibly greater resources" than the other applicant for lead counsel). Also, recently, in Griffin v. Flagstar Bancorp, Inc., 2:10-cv-10610, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 173702 (E.D. Mich. Dec. 12, 2013), the Court recognized that "[t]he $3 million settlement appears to be an excellent result" and that "[t]he complexity of this ERISA litigation cannot be questioned, nor can the skill and expertise of counsel who are known nationally for their successful representation of ERISA clients in class action matters.”

III. Stull, Stull & Brody Has Substantial Complex Litigation Experience

Throughout its 40 year history, Stull, Stull & Brody has been involved with a number of seminal cases that have significantly affected the landscape of securities litigation. Indeed, Stull, Stull & Brody has handled every aspect of complex class action litigation, including initial investigation, extensive pre-trial discovery, trial, post-trial motions, and appeals. Stull, Stull & Brody has been involved in a host of such litigations, having successfully represented plaintiffs, as a lead counsel, in hundreds of cases recovering billions of dollars in damages on behalf of investors.

The firm’s efforts have been recognized, as reflected in the letter annexed hereto, by a late member of the United States Congress, the Representative Paul E.

Gillmor, Rep. Ohio 5th District. As The Honorable Congressman Gillmor wrote to The Honorable Stanley E. Chesler, U.S.D.J. on January 2, 2007, in connection with the In re Merck & Co., Inc. Securities, Shareholder Derivative and ERISA Litig. (MDL 1658); Case no 3:05-CV-01151:

I was one of the court appointed lead plaintiffs in In re Safety-Kleen Rollins Shareholders Litigation, Civil Action No. 3:00-CV1343-17, which was pending before Judge Joseph Anderson in the District of South Carolina. In that case, which alleged, among other things, violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I and the other court appointed lead plaintiffs selected Stull, Stull & Brody to be one of the lead counsel for the plaintiffs. That case resulted in a settlement recovery for the class of a very substantial portion of the money that could have been recovered if the case had gone to trial net of attorneys fees, expenses and administration fees.

During the course of that litigation, which lasted for about five years, Stull, Stull & Brody kept me apprised of all significant developments in the action such as class certification, settlement negotiations, litigation strategy, pending motions, court rulings and trial preparation. I would regularly speak to counsel by telephone at which time the foregoing topics would typically be discussed and I would have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input.

In addition, for over the past forty-plus years Stull, Stull & Brody has been recognized by numerous Courts for the high quality of its legal representation and excellence in the field of securities as noted in the following comments of judges in cases where Stull, Stull & Brody occupied a leading role:

All the firms involved in this litigation are highly experienced and well respected, particularly in the field of securities law litigation. The Stull . . . firm [is one] of this area's, if not the nation's most active and successful law firms specializing in securities litigation.

Stull v. Baker, 410 F. Supp. 1326, 1332 (S.D.N.Y. 1976).

The firms involved, I think we heard from several of them today, the papers that have been submitted, it is clear of the dedication, devotion, professionalism, and in the court's view efficiency of these firms, so there is no question in the court's mind of the quality of the representation.

In re American Express Fin'l Advisors Sec. Litig., 04 Civ. 1773 (DAB) (S.D.N.Y. July 13, 2007).

[T]his is one of the largest, if not the largest, securities fraud settlements in this district. The settlement size is particularly noteworthy as class counsel did not have the benefit of an SEC or other regulatory agency investigation and so prosecuted the case without assistance. . . . The management of the case was also of extremely high quality. . . . [C]lass counsel is of high caliber and has extensive experience in similar class action litigation. Each of the co-lead counsel firms has a national reputation for advocacy in securities class actions, and there is no doubt that this standing enhanced their ability to prosecute the case effectively and to negotiate credibly. . . . The submissions were of consistently high quality, and class counsel has been notably diligent in preparing filing in a timely manner even when under tight deadlines.

In re Ikon Office Solutions, Inc Securities Litigation, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 6510 (E.D. Pa. May 9, 2000).

I am satisfied that counsel in this case are highly competent, very skilled in this very specialized area and were at all times during the course of the litigation . . . well prepared, well spoken, [k]new their stuff and [w]ere a credit to their profession. They are the top of the line.

In Re Electro-Catheter Corporation Securities Litigation, Civ. No. 87-41 (D.N.J. Sept. 7, 1989).

The court takes note of the competence of both plaintiffs' counsel and defendants' counsel and their extensive experience in litigating securities class actions. The competence of plaintiffs' counsel resulted in this case being vigorously and efficiently prosecuted against very able opponents over a twenty month period and was a factor in bringing about settlement.

Schaffer v. Timberland Co., 94-634-JD (D.N.H. 1997).

This case is a "model for how commercial litigation should be conducted and can be resolved." Bash v. Diagnostek, CV 94-794 M (D.N.M.).

Indeed, I indicate to . . .counsel for plaintiff that they have done an admirable job in this case in bringing it to finality and in bringing back to the shareholders of this corporation some moneys [sic] as a result of certain things which occurred during the course of the operation of this corporation which perhaps should not have occurred.

Finkel v. O'Brien, Civ. No. 85-2539 (D.N.J. March 27, 1990).

Stull, Stull & Brody's expertise in the field of securities litigation has also been recognized by the following courts: In re Frontier Group Insurance, Inc. Securities Litigation, 172 F.R.D. 31 (E.D.N.Y. 1997); In re Allegheny International Inc. Shareholder Litigation, 86-835 (W.D. Pa.) (Order, December 10, 1987, Diamond J.); *Zucker v. A. SEMINAL CASES

Seminal decisions in which Stull, Stull & Brody has been involved include:

- ◆ In In re Wilmington Trust Corp. ERISA Litig., 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 125891 (D. Del. Sept. 4, 2013), among the first reported decisions of its kind, the court granted plaintiffs' motion to proceed without class certification, allowing plaintiffs to represent all plan participants because of the derivative nature of ERISA's fiduciary duties.
- ◆ In the Lucent ERISA litigation the firm was largely responsible for a frequently-cited ruling by the District Court dated February 11, 2002, where the Court denied a motion to stay the ERISA litigation against Lucent until resolution of a related securities class action against the company. Stull, Stull & Brody's briefing on the stay motion pointed out the many significant differences between ERISA and securities class actions, even when the ERISA and securities cases involve the same factual issues. The District Court ultimately ruled that "resolution of the securities class action . . . will not necessarily resolve all issues in this matter" and "[t]he legal issues here will still have to be determined, and a stay or continuance shall not change that fact." In re Lucent Technologies, Inc. ERISA Litig., Civil Action No. 01-cv-3491 (JAP) (D.N.J. 2005).

- ◆ In Merck & Co., Inc. v. Reynolds, 559 U.S. 633 (2010), in a case brought on behalf of investors in Merck securities alleging that they were defrauded due to misrepresentations made by Merck, the United States Supreme Court issued a ruling making it easier for defrauded investors to file actions claiming violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by holding that the statute of limitations does not begin to run until the investor should have known that a materially false statement was knowingly or recklessly made.
- ◆ In Rand v. Monsanto Company, 926 F.2d 596 (7th Cir. 1991), the firm appeared on behalf of the plaintiff in a landmark decision establishing the principle that a class representative plaintiff need not be willing to bear all of the class' costs in an action to satisfy the adequacy of representation requirement of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.
- ◆ In Small v. Fritz Companies Inc., 30 Cal. 4th 167 (2003), the firm successfully argued before the California Supreme Court that a non-trading shareholder has the right to sue a corporation for damages where the shareholder relies on false financial statements issued by the corporation. The decision represented a significant change in legal doctrine and was widely heralded as a potent new weapon for investors.
- ◆ In Howard v. Everex, 228 F.3d 1057 (9th Cir. 2000), SS&B successfully advocated that a corporate officer can be liable in a private anti-fraud action for signing a document filed with the SEC that he knows (or is reckless in not knowing) contains misrepresentations, even if the officer was not involved in preparing the document. The Ninth Circuit decision was a precursor to Section 302(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 which now requires corporate officers that sign documents filed with the SEC to certify the accuracy of information therein.
- ◆ In Lewis v. Black, 74 F.R.D. 1 (E.D.N.Y. 1975), the firm established that neither the personality nor the motive of a proposed class representative was determinative of whether he would provide vigorous advocacy on behalf of the class, thereby preventing defendants from compelling representatives to respond to questions regarding motives and actions in past cases.
- ◆ In In re Cabletron Systems, Inc. Sec. Litig., 311 F.3d 11 (1st Cir. 2002), the firm was instrumental in obtaining a reversal of a district court order dismissing a complaint under the pleading requirements of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. This case established in the First Circuit that plaintiffs are not required to name confidential sources in a complaint.
- ◆ In In re Frontier Group Insurance Litig., Master File No. 94 Civ. 5213 (E.D.N.Y. 2002), the firm was instrumental in defeating a Daubert challenge, thereby enabling the expert to testify as to aggregate damages based on the use of a trading model.

- ◆ In Harman v. Lyphomed, Inc., 122 F.R.D. 522 (N.D. Ill. 1988), the firm established the applicability of the fraud-on-the-market theory of reliance for stocks trading on the NASDAQ.
- ◆ The firm was instrumental in establishing new law on fraud-on-the-market theory in Finkel v. Docutel/Olivetti Corp., 817 F.2d 356 (5th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 485 U.S. 959 (1988), and Mottoros v. Abrams, 524 F. Supp. 254 (N.D. Ill. 1981).

As a lead counsel, Stull, Stull & Brody has successfully litigated hundreds of actions, recovering over one billion dollars on behalf of defrauded shareholders. A sampling of these cases in which Stull, Stull & Brody had a leading role include:

Re: In re Merck & Co, Inc., Securities, Shareholder Derivative and ERISA Litig.
(MDL 1658); Case No. 3:05-cv-01151 SRC-MF

Dear Judge Chesler:

I was one of the court appointed lead plaintiffs in In re Safety-Kleen Rollins Shareholders Litigation, Civil Action No. 3:00-CV1343-17, which was pending before Judge Joseph Anderson in the District of South Carolina. In that case, which alleged, among other things, violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I and the other court appointed lead plaintiffs selected Stull, Stull & Brody to be one of the lead counsel for the plaintiffs. That case resulted in a settlement recovery for the class of a very substantial portion of the money that could have been recovered if the case had gone to trial, net of attorneys fees, expenses and administrative fees.

During the course of that litigation, which lasted for about five years, Stull, Stull & Brody kept me apprised of all significant developments in the action such as class certification, settlement negotiations, litigation strategy, pending motions, court rulings and trial preparation. I would regularly speak to counsel by telephone at which time the foregoing topics would typically be discussed and I would have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul E. Gillmor
