BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF STULL, STULL & BRODY

For more than forty years, Stull, Stull & Brody's ("SS&B") high-quality legal representation has been nationally recognized.

SS&B's efforts were recognized by a late member of the United States Congress, the Representative Paul E. Gillmor, Rep. Ohio 5th District. As The Honorable Congressman Gillmor wrote in connection with In re Merck & Co., Inc. Securities, Shareholder Derivative and ERISA Litig., Case No 3:05-CV-01151 (MDL 1658):

I was one of the court appointed lead plaintiffs in In re Safety-Kleen Rollins Shareholders Litigation, Civil Action No. 3:00-CV1343-17, which was pending before Judge Joseph Anderson in the District of South Carolina. In that case, which alleged, among other things, violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I and the other court appointed lead plaintiffs selected Stull, Stull & Brody to be one of the lead counsel for the plaintiffs. That case resulted in a settlement recovery for the class of a very substantial portion of the money that could have been recovered if the case had gone to trial net of fees, expenses and administration fees.

During the course of that litigation, which lasted for about five years, Stull, Stull & Brody kept me apprised of all significant developments in the action such as class certification, settlement negotiations, litigation strategy, pending motions, court rulings and trial preparation. I would regularly speak to counsel by telephone at which time the foregoing topics would typically be discussed and I would have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input.

(Letter from Rep. Paul E. Gillmor of January 2, 2007, annexed hereto)

Based upon SS&B's results, the "Top 100 Settlements Semi-Annual Report" for the second half of 2012, which "identifies the largest securities class action settlements filed after the passage of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, ranked by the total value of the settlement fund[.]" shows that SS&B ranked in the top ten in a section that lists the law firms that served as lead or co-lead counsel for each litigation in the Top 100 settlements and identifies the most frequent lead or co-lead counsel appearing in the Top 100 settlements.

Indeed, SS&B has earned a national reputation for the zealous representation of plaintiffs in complex litigations, including securities class actions, ERISA actions and consumer class actions. SS&B has litigated hundreds of cases achieving an aggregate of more than two billion dollars in recoveries for aggrieved class members. SS&B's skill and expertise are demonstrated by its results, recovering at least $100 million for aggrieved investors while serving in a leadership role in each of the following class actions:

SS&B maintains offices in Manhattan and Beverly Hills, enabling the firm to efficiently handle litigations on a nationwide basis. Due to the consistency and seniority of its attorneys, including eight attorneys who have been with the firm for more than twenty years and an additional two attorneys who have been with the firm for more than ten years, SS&B is able to leverage its vast experience efficiently and effectively to achieve favorable results on behalf of class members in many cases. SS&B's lawyers possess outstanding credentials and the firm has received numerous acknowledgements for its achievements.

SS&B's excellent results are also reflected in the field of ERISA litigation, where SS&B has been court appointed as lead counsel (six times) or liaison counsel (twice) for plaintiffs in eight of the approximately twenty largest recoveries, including:

- ◆ In re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litig., Civil Action No. 02 CV 8853 (SWK) (S.D.N.Y.) (recovery of $100 million in cash to the company's 401(k) plan in what the court noted was "one of the largest ERISA settlements to date")

Court opinions recognizing SS&B's high-quality legal representation include:

The complexity of this ERISA litigation cannot be questioned, nor can the skill and expertise of counsel who are known nationally for their successful representation of ERISA clients in class action matters.

Griffin v. Flagstar Bancorp, Inc., 2:10-cv-10610, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 173702, *24-25 (E.D. Mich. Dec. 12, 2013).

The firms involved, I think we heard from several of them today, the papers that have been submitted, it is clear of the dedication, devotion, professionalism, and in the court's view efficiency of these firms, so there is no question in the court's mind of the quality of the representation.

In re American Express Fin'l Advisors Sec. Litig., 04 Civ. 1773 (DAB) (S.D.N.Y. July 13, 2007).

Class counsel are qualified attorneys with considerable ERISA experience. Their prosecution of this lawsuit has secured the substantial Settlement now under consideration. Throughout this litigation, they have shown themselves to be capable and qualified to represent the Class.

In re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litig., 02 Civ. 8853 (SWK), 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 70474, at *10 (S.D.N.Y. 2006).

In sum, counsel litigated this case during its early phases aggressively and in a manner that demonstrated legal expertise in this area of the law....

...The high quality of plaintiffs' counsel's work culminated in the successful resolution of this complex case. This was demonstrated by their successful and commendable prosecution of this case through the motion to dismiss stage and the ultimate settlement of this case under favorable terms.

In re Sprint Corp. ERISA Litig., 443 F. Supp. 2d 1249, 1260, 1270 (D. Kan. 2006).

the Court finds that [co-lead counsel and] Stull, Stull & Brody have a high level of ERISA expertise and are willing to commit each firm's resources to this case such that they fairly and adequately represent all parties on their side.

In re Cardinal Health, Inc. ERISA Litig., 225 F.R.D. 552, 556 (S.D. Ohio 2005).

In fact, this is one of the largest, if not the largest, securities fraud settlement in this district. The settlement size is particularly noteworthy as class counsel did not have the benefit of an SEC or other regulatory agency investigation and so prosecuted the case without assistance. The management of the case was also of extremely high quality. As detailed in the affidavit requesting attorneys' fees, class counsel organized the discovery and accompanying document review in an efficient and non-duplicative manner...

[C]lass counsel is of high caliber and has extensive experience in similar class action litigation. Each of the co-lead counsel firms has a national reputation for advocacy in securities class actions, and there is no doubt that this standing enhanced their ability both to prosecute the case effectively and to negotiate credibly....

...The submissions were of consistently high quality, and class counsel has been notably diligent in preparing filings in a timely manner even when under tight deadlines.

In re Ikon Office Solutions, Inc. Sec. Litig., 194 F.R.D. 166, 194-95 (E.D. Pa. 2000).

The court takes note of the competence of both plaintiffs' counsel and defendants' counsel and their extensive experience in litigating securities class actions. The competence of plaintiffs' counsel resulted in this case being vigorously and efficiently prosecuted against very able opponents over a twenty month period and was a factor in bringing about settlement.

Schaffer v. Timberland Co., 94-634-JD (D.N.H. 1997).

This case is a "model for how commercial litigation should be conducted and can be resolved."

Bash v. Diagnostek, CV 94-794 M (D.N.M.).

Indeed, I indicate to . . .counsel for plaintiff that they have done an admirable job in this case in bringing it to finality and in bringing back to the shareholders of this corporation some moneys as a result of certain things which occurred during the course of the operation of this corporation which perhaps should not have occurred.

Finkel v. O'Brien, Civ. No. 85-2539 (D.N.J. March 27, 1990).

I am satisfied that counsel in this case are highly competent, very skilled in this very specialized area and were at all times during the course of the litigation . . . well prepared, well spoken, []knew their stuff and []were a credit to their profession. They are the top of the line.

In Re Electro-Catheter Corp. Sec. Litig., Civ. No. 87-41 (D.N.J. September 7, 1989).

SEMINAL CASES

Throughout its 40 year history, SS&B has been involved with a number of seminal cases that have significantly affected the landscape of securities litigation.

- ◆ In Merck & Co., Inc. v. Reynolds, 559 U.S. 633 (2010), in a case brought on behalf of investors in Merck securities alleging that they were defrauded due to misrepresentations made by Merck, the United States Supreme Court issued a ruling making it easier for defrauded investors to file actions claiming violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by holding that the statute of limitations does not begin to run until the investor should have known that a materially false statement was knowingly or recklessly made.
- ◆ In Rand v. Monsanto Company, 926 F.2d 596 (7th Cir. 1991), the firm appeared on behalf of the plaintiff in a landmark decision establishing the principle that a class representative plaintiff need not be willing to bear all of the class' costs in an action to satisfy the adequacy of representation requirement of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.
- ◆ In In re Lucent Technologies, Inc. ERISA Litig., Civil Action No. 01-cv-3491 (JAP) (D.N.J. 2005), the firm was largely responsible for a frequently-cited district court decision that denied defendants' motion to stay the ERISA litigation until a related securities class action was resolved. SS&B's briefing in opposition to the stay motion highlighted the significant differences between ERISA and securities class actions, even when those actions involve the same factual issues. The court ruled that "resolution of the securities class action . . . will not necessarily resolve all issues in this matter" and "[t]he legal issues here will still have to be determined, and a stay or continuance shall not change that fact."

- ◆ In Small v. Fritz Companies Inc., 30 Cal. 4th 167 (2003), the firm successfully argued before the California Supreme Court that a non-trading shareholder has the right to sue a corporation for damages where the shareholder relies on false financial statements issued by the corporation. The decision represented a significant change in legal doctrine and was widely heralded as a potent new weapon for investors.
- ◆ In Howard v. Everex, 228 F.3d 1057 (9th Cir. 2000), SS&B successfully advocated that a corporate officer can be liable in a private anti-fraud action for signing a document filed with the SEC that he knows (or is reckless in not knowing) contains misrepresentations, even if the officer was not involved in preparing the document. The Ninth Circuit decision was a precursor to Section 302(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 which now requires corporate officers that sign documents filed with the SEC to certify the accuracy of information therein.
- ◆ In Lewis v. Black, 74 F.R.D. 1 (E.D.N.Y. 1975), the firm established that neither the personality nor the motive of a proposed class representative was determinative of whether he would provide vigorous advocacy on behalf of the class, thereby preventing defendants from compelling representatives to respond to questions regarding motives and actions in past cases.
- ◆ In In re Cabletron Systems, Inc. Sec. Litig., 311 F.3d 11 (1st Cir. 2002), the firm was instrumental in obtaining a reversal of a district court order dismissing a complaint under the pleading requirements of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. This case established in the First Circuit that plaintiffs are not required to name confidential sources in a complaint.
- ◆ In In re Frontier Group Insurance Litig., Master File No. 94 Civ. 5213 (E.D.N.Y. 2002), the firm was instrumental in defeating a Daubert challenge, thereby enabling the expert to testify as to aggregate damages based on the use of a trading model.
- ◆ In Harman v. Lyphomed, Inc., 122 F.R.D. 522 (N.D. Ill. 1988), the firm established the applicability of the fraud-on-the-market theory of reliance for stocks trading on the NASDAQ.
- ◆ The firm was instrumental in establishing new law on fraud-on-the-market theory in Finkel v. Docutel/Olivetti Corp., 817 F.2d 356 (5th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 485 U.S. 959 (1988), and Mottoros v. Abrams, 524 F. Supp. 254 (N.D. Ill. 1981).
- ◆ In In re Wilmington Trust Corp. ERISA Litig., 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 125891 (D. Del. Sept. 4, 2013), among the first reported decisions of its kind, the court granted plaintiffs' motion to proceed without class certification, allowing plaintiffs to represent all participants in an ERISA plan because of the derivative nature of ERISA's fiduciary duties.

Serving in a leadership role, SS&B has obtained more than two billion dollars on behalf of class members. A sampling of such cases includes:

Re: In re Merck & Co, Inc., Securities, Shareholder Derivative and ERISA Litig.
(MDL 1658); Case No. 3:05-cv-01151 SRC-MF

Dear Judge Chesler:

I was one of the court appointed lead plaintiffs in In re Safety-Kleen Rollins Shareholders Litigation, Civil Action No. 3:00-CV1343-17, which was pending before Judge Joseph Anderson in the District of South Carolina. In that case, which alleged, among other things, violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I and the other court appointed lead plaintiffs selected Stull, Stull & Brody to be one of the lead counsel for the plaintiffs. That case resulted in a settlement recovery for the class of a very substantial portion of the money that could have been recovered if the case had gone to trial, net of attorneys fees, expenses and administrative fees.

During the course of that litigation, which lasted for about five years, Stull, Stull & Brody kept me apprised of all significant developments in the action such as class certification, settlement negotiations, litigation strategy, pending motions, court rulings and trial preparation. I would regularly speak to counsel by telephone at which time the foregoing topics would typically be discussed and I would have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul E. Gillmor
