MDL No. 2887

Case No. 19-md-2887-JAR-TJJ

ORDER APPOINTING COUNSEL

The Court's Preliminary Practice and Procedure Order directed counsel seeking a leadership position in the organizational structure of this Multidistrict Litigation ("MDL") to submit a proposal describing counsel's qualifications for selection.¹ The Court also ordered any counsel seeking a leadership role to appear in person at the initial scheduling conference on July 29, 2019.² The Court received several thorough submissions from counsel and heard argument regarding counsel's applications during the July 29 conference. After considering counsel's submissions and arguments, as well as the guidance provided by § 10.224 of the Manual for Complex Litigation Fourth ("MCL 4th"), Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and other accepted guidance regarding the appointment of leadership counsel in cases of this kind, the Court issues this Order Appointing Counsel to designated leadership roles in this MDL.

Before turning to discussion of counsel's appointment to specific leadership roles, the Court notes that many well-qualified candidates submitted applications for leadership positions in this MDL. The selection task has been challenging due to a surplus of qualified candidates from which to choose, and the Court does not intend for its decision to exclude some candidates from leadership positions to comment negatively about their qualifications. On the contrary, the Court is confident that those attorneys who have not been selected would have been able, effective, and diligent advocates on behalf of all Plaintiffs. From among the many qualified candidates, the Court finds that the counsel appointed to leadership positions herein will best assist the Court in resolving these cases effectively, efficiently, and fairly. As this litigation proceeds, of course, the Court may require modification to the leadership structure as the interests of efficiency and justice so require.

I. Appointments to Counsel Leadership Structure

Upon the issuance of this Order, both Plaintiffs and Defendants are expected to act only through leadership counsel except as may otherwise be ordered. Any non-lead counsel may file motions for relief from or to modify this or any other order of the Court, but are cautioned that they should do so only if there is a matter of the utmost importance that they have already unsuccessfully sought to have raised by their Lead Counsel.
